

Sports' tours insurance proposal form

For tours starting and finishing in the UK

Important note: Cover in respect of cancellation and curtailment is only in force once the policy is incepted. Therefore, even if the final number of persons travelling is to be finalised, it is imperative that cover is taken out at the earliest opportunity. Any adjustments may be made once the final numbers are known.

Upon receiving your proposal form, Howden will provide you a quotation via email. If you wish to proceed with the quote, please advise Howden in writing.

All quotes issued are valid for 30 days, if you do not confirm acceptance within this time, a new quotation will need to be provided.

Please note, cover in respect of cancellation and curtailment is only in force once the policy is inception.

Duty of fair presentation

We take this opportunity to remind you that you owe a duty to make a fair presentation of the risk to the insurer. You have a duty to disclose to the insurer every material circumstance which you know or ought to know after a reasonable search or which is sufficient to put the insurer on notice that it needs to make further enquiries for the purpose of revealing those material circumstances. In addition, you have the duty to disclose information in a clear and accessible manner.

A circumstance is material if it would influence a prudent insurer's judgment in determining whether to take the risk and, if so, on what terms. Failure to disclose a material circumstance may entitle the insurer to:

In some circumstances, avoid the policy from inception and in this event any claims under the policy would not be paid. Impose different terms on your cover, and/or

Reduce the amount of any claim payable

This duty applies:

- Before your cover is placed;
- When it is renewed; and
- At any time that it is varied.

Data protection notice

The information that you provide will be used to place your insurance and in the general administration of any claim. This information will be shared with insurers. Howden and insurers will treat your personal information fairly and lawfully in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998. You have a right to access (subject to limited exceptions) and if necessary rectify the information that we hold about you. Please note that all correspondence in relation to your club's tour insurance will normally be conducted by email, except in cases where this is not available whereby correspondence will be via the post.
